SHABBAT ACHAREI MOT-KEDOSHIM

God instructs Aaron to purify the altar, the priests, and the people. To purify the people two goats are chosen: one as a sacrifice, the other as a scapegoat, to be sent off bearing Israel's sins. This ceremony of the Day of Atonement is to be "an eternal statute" on the tenth day of the seventh month. Other statutes, concerning animal slaughter and prohibited sexual relations, follow.

"You shall be holy, for I, Adonai your God, am holy." God urges Israel to attain holiness by emulating God's holiness. The people of Israel are asked to show respect for parents and for Shabbat, to refrain from idolatry, have concern for the poor and the stranger, and avoid gossip, anger, and improper sexual behavior.

This occurs at services the evening before, as well as the morning and afternoon of the date of the yahrzeit. On Shabbat, all those observing a yahrzeit in the coming week are invited to share the name of their loved one.
