Celebrating our Purpose
Cantor Jack Chomsky | jchomsky@tiferethisrael.org

As I write these words, it’s a bit of a snowy, cold April (remember?). But, by the time you receive this, the weather should have mostly improved.

Later spring means (after the BREAD Nehemiah Action on Monday, May 7) the Justine Hackman Young Jewish Artist Concert. Join us on Thursday, May 10, at 7:00 pm. You will be amazed and tickled by what these young people are doing – and the fruits of their hours of practice.

Have you noticed how hard I’ve been working this spring to make people aware of the Counting of the Omer? It leads, of course, to Shavuot, celebrated this year from Saturday night, May 19 through Monday, May 21. At Passover, we celebrated being freed from slavery. Shavuot takes the next step, connecting us with the purpose of being free – to live a life guided by principles, obligations, and privileges conferred upon us by Torah. It’s harder to sell obligation than freedom nowadays, but I invite you to celebrate the joy of being commanded in the best ways possible.

Our Shavuot celebration will include a Saturday night tikkun learning session with members of Agudas Achim, a Sunday morning festival service including Hebrew High School graduation, and Yizkor on Monday morning.

Finally, I’d like to invite you to join me at the Cantors Assembly Convention in Florida (Palm Beach Gardens) this June. It takes place at the PGA National Resort from Sunday, June 3, through Thursday, June 7. In particular, Monday, June 4, has been designated as a special day to welcome the public to our joyful, music-filled gathering. Many Tifereth Israel members already live in the Sunshine State for part or all of the year and could take advantage of the chance to enjoy what cantors do when we get together – and visit with me, too. See the Cantors Assembly website, www.cantors.org, for details.

If you’re not already my Facebook friend, connect with me for the daily (nightly) counting of the Omer!

New Ideas Move Us Forward

Adam Eisenberg, President | president@tiferethisrael.org

As I reflect on the past two years as president of our synagogue, I realize that the blanket statement of “it wasn’t what I signed up for,” though true, does not even come close to the real experience: A roller coaster of eye opening conversations, observations, and experiences which led to challenging decisions that needed to be made. But as I look to the future, I am excited about the path we are now on.

I want to thank the congregation for giving me the incredible opportunity to serve our shul in this capacity. While I am thrilled to be passing on the torch to our new officers and board members, I need to recognize our Vice Presidents, Alison Merzel and Kyle Katz; Treasurer, Lawrence Cohen; and Secretary, Liz Sherowski who have donated countless hours and much welcomed support and guidance over the past two years. Along with Nancy Gurwin, our immediate Past President and all those who have preceded her, I will forever be grateful for the tremendous resource you have been for me.

We are so lucky to have such a dedicated Board of Trustees who have contributed to providing the leadership necessary to keep our organization moving forward. It has been an honor to work with our clergy, staff, and every volunteer. It truly takes a village. I have found that the generosity of our congregational family is second to none, both financially as well as with your time. There is no better definition of kehillah than Tifereth Israel.

On Tuesday, May 8, our synagogue will welcome a new group of lay leaders to our board. These are congregants who will be committing their time, energy, knowledge, and resources for the betterment of Tifereth Israel and Conservative Judaism in Columbus, Ohio. Without the continual commitment of new faces to bring fresh, new ideas and thoughts to the table, Tifereth Israel will not continue to grow.

Last fall, before the High Holy Days, our Board spent time developing a vision statement to be shared with the congregation. I don’t think that happened, for a variety of reasons. A couple of weeks ago, I came across an email that contained the last iteration:

“All are welcome at Tifereth Israel, a joyful, vibrant Jewish congregation working together to inspire our community and improve our world.”

Please remember that.

Thanks for the Memories
Rabbi Michael Ungar | mungar@tiferethisrael.org

As this will be my last Forum article, I want to take this opportunity to thank those who have helped to make my tenure at Tifereth Israel so memorable and special.

If I were to mention you all by name, it would be its own edition of the Forum, but you know who you are. When I got here in 2002, I was younger and so was my family. Liat was two years old and now she is heading off to college. Within a few months of my arrival, my marriage ended and even though most of you did not know me at all, I was amazed by the generosity and support that my family and I received. I will never forget the help over the years following that allowed me to be your rabbi while parenting Rami, Adi, Maya, Liat, and Rachel.

This congregation afforded me opportunities to grow and learn. My understanding of community, prayer, study, social action, and the needs of individuals and families has deepened. I have also been blessed to work with colleagues in the Jewish and general community from whose good will and generosity of spirit I have learned a great deal.

I particularly want to thank the people with whom I have worked shoulder to shoulder over the past 16 years in this building. What a treat it has been to share the holy work that we do with great rabbis, cantor, education and youth directors, executive directors, programmers, support staff, maintenance, and kitchen staff. They have been like a family to me.

The coming year will be one of intense transition for me and for all of you. I am excited about my future in Cleveland and the opportunities that I will have to explore within and outside of the rabbinate. This will also be a time for Tifereth Israel to forge a new path, and there should be enthusiasm around that sacred journey as well.

Thank you again to all of you who helped to make Tifereth Israel and Columbus my home for the last decade and a half. May we have many opportunities to share simchas in the future!

• Social Justice and Community Service
• Youth Education and Life-Long Learning
• Culture and the Arts

Why should I participate?
Establishing a named fund with Tifereth Israel Foundation demonstrates your commitment to maintaining the strength and long-term financial security of the synagogue and its traditions. It is an excellent way to pay tribute to those you love or remember, inspire others, and ensure that your values and priorities live on in perpetuity.

Legacy giving is simple. Your options include:
• Bequest in a will
• Gift of life insurance
• Gift of IRA or pension fund
• Gift of cash or securities
• Gift of real estate
• Charitable remainder trust
• And more. We can help you find ways that fit your lifestyle and interests

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Technology Updates Improve Synagogue Experience

Over the past twelve months, Congregation Tifereth Israel has added several new and exciting electronic upgrades to the building, all of which provide members with an enhanced synagogue experience, on- and off-site. These upgrades were privately funded through the generous support of Ronnie Blank and Bev Weston and James and Nancy Wasserstrom.

The technology improvements funded by Ronnie and Bev included:
• An assisted hearing system in the sanctuary,
• Livestreaming systems in both the sanctuary and Katz Chapel, and
• A portable livestreaming system for use throughout the building.

James and Nancy Wasserstrom generously provided funding for the new, electronic information center located in the Atrium.

Each of these technologies provides a unique benefit to our members and guests.

Assisted Hearing System
The system allows adults and children with hearing loss to fully participate in our religious services. The individual devices that make up the system improve the hearing experience of our members and guests and allow us to reach out to those who may have felt isolated as a result of hearing challenges.

Livestreaming Systems
Now, anyone who is unable to physically be at our building for any reason can stay connected to our community and participate in programs, events and religious services from their homes, or anywhere where they can access our website. Other benefits include the ability to:
• Reach out to those who are homebound because of sickness, disability, or age.
• Keep members who are traveling away from home in touch with the congregation.
• Invite families interested in joining our congregation to attend services and programs in person or view them online.

To access Tifereth Israel’s livestreamed services and events, go to www.tiferethisrael.org and click on the link. Events not held in the sanctuary or chapel are livestreamed via Facebook at www.facebook.com/CTIcbus/.

Electronic Information Center
Our new Atrium display provides us with an innovative way to inform visitors to our building about upcoming programs, promote our events and classes, and keep our members informed. It also livens up our Atrium with information that is dynamic, interactive, and adaptable.

The Board and professional leadership of Congregation Tifereth Israel are most grateful to Ronnie, Bev, Jim, and Nancy for their very generous and thoughtful gifts. These contributions are an expression of their love and support for our congregation.

Sisterhood Annual Torah Fund Dinner

May 24  |  5:30 pm  |  Tifereth Israel

The Tifereth Israel Sisterhood invites all to join them in honoring longtime member Anne Bonowitz, a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary, for her many years of commitment to the synagogue and the Columbus Jewish community. Guest speakers for the evening include Rabbi Harold Berman, Rabbi Emeritus, and Edna Schrank, President, Central Great Lakes Region Women’s League for Conservative Judaism. The cost for the evening is $20.00 ($25.00 if received after May 7) per person, plus a minimum donation to Torah Fund of $18.00. Funds raised through this event will benefit students attending the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York, the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies in Los Angeles, the Schechter Institutes in Israel, Zacharias Frankel College in Europe, and the Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano. For more information, contact Nancy Gurwin at ngurwin@gmail.com.

Congregation Tifereth Israel will join with the entire Columbus community in celebrating Pride Weekend with a special Pride Shabbat on June 15-16.

Tifereth Israel is an open and accepting community for all Jews and their loved ones. We are committed to creating an egalitarian environment that is welcoming to all, regardless of race, ethnicity, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and physical or mental disability.

Our observance of Pride Shabbat will start on Friday, June 15, with minyan and erev Shabbat services at 6:00 pm followed by a community dinner and panel discussion of contemporary Jewish themes as they relate to the LGBTQ community. On Shabbat, June 16, all members of the community and their allies will be invited to the Torah for an aliyah. Following services, and during kiddush, Rabbi Braver will lead a discussion of what the Torah says in parashat Achrei Mot and how it has been interpreted by the Conservative movement.

JUNE 15-16 • TIFERETH ISRAEL
Why I love Tifereth Israel: Julie Wasserstrom

There are easy answers...because it is where Brad and I got married, where our daughters had their baby namings, where many of our friends and family belong, and because of my husband’s family’s legacy. All of these things are true, but it is so much more than this.

When Brad and I got married at Tifereth Israel, the only direction I gave our photographer was to ask for one photo, standing in the doorway, looking into the sanctuary. I have that same photo from my parents’ wedding showing family, guests and the beautiful, stained glass windows in the sanctuary. I wanted the same photo taken at our wedding, standing in the same place, seeing the same perspective, but also seeing how much has changed. I love that over the years, at Tifereth Israel so much is different, yet so much has stayed the same. Although change can be scary, I love knowing that some things will never change. The one constant, but intangible item, is the feeling one gets when walking through the doors – a feeling of belonging.
