

UPDATED COVID PROCEDURE

SHABBAT MORNING

- Signups are no longer required to attend Shabbat services
- The Torah procession through the aisles has resumed, though we ask that people remain in their seats and not crowd to the edges of the aisle to kiss the Torah
- Masks are still required during services, but service leaders may remove their masks while leading
- Proof of vaccination is still required for those eligible to receive the vaccine

OUTDOOR SERVICES & EVENTS

- Masks are no longer required

CLASSES

- Small meetings, classes, etc. indoors are permitted for fully vaccinated groups, without masks
- Thanks to the Men's Club, we have technology to allow for hybrid meetings and classes via Zoom

FOOD SERVICE

- Outdoor food service is permitted for events and gatherings
- The "L'chayim table" has returned to Shabbat mornings after services end
- We are providing a mini kiddush of challah, wine/grape juice, and a nosh. We hope to transition to a fuller kiddush experience soon.
